[So far the London Gazette.]

L O N D O N, July 11.

We hear another Attempt will ſoon be made to find out the North-weſt Paſſage, under the Direction of an Admiral well known for his Skill in Navigation.

Yeſterday Mr. Williams, Bookſeller in Fleet-Street, whoſe Six Months Confinement in the King's Bench Priſon, for republiſhing Nᵒ 45 of the North Briton, is expired, was brought to the Court of King's Bench, Guildhall, and diſcharged, on his giving Security for his good Behaviour for 7 Years, by two Sureties, bound in 500 l. each.

Yeſterday was tried at Guildhall, before Lord Mansfield, a Cauſe, wherein Meſſrs. Carr, Ibbetſon, and Comp. Mercers on Ludgate-Hill, were Plaintiffs, againſt ſeveral Revenue Officers, Defendants, for entering and ſearching the Houſe of the Plaintiffs, under Pretence of their having a large Quantity of prohibited Goods in their Poſſeſſion: When it appearing that the Officers had not the leaſt Foundation for ſuch Search, the Jury, which conſiſted of Merchants, found a Verdict againſt the Officers for 100 l. Damages, with Coſts of Suit.

Yeſterday the grand Match at Newmarket, between Lord Bolingbroke's Gimcrack, and Sir James Lowther's Aſcham, was won by the former. The Betts which depended on the Match, were ſaid to have exceeded 100,000 l.

July 15. His Majeſty has appointed the Earl of Scarborough to be Cofferer of the Houſhold, in the Room of the Earl of Thomond.

The Earl of Aſhburnham to be Keeper of the Great Wardrobe, in the Room of Lord Le Deſpencer.

The Earl of Beſborough and Lord Grantham to be Poſt-Maſters General in the Room of Lord Hyde and Lord Trevor.

And they have appointed Henry Potts, Eſq; Secretary, and Samuel Potts, Eſq; Comptroller of the Poſt-Office.

On Wedneſday the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt ſet out from his Seat at Hayes, on a Viſit to Earl Temple at Stowe. The Firmneſs and unalterable Union of theſe two illuſtrious Patriots, ſhews, ſtronger than any Words can, the Rectitude of each other's Conduct; while their known Integrity, Abilities, and Love for their Country, make every honeſt Man ſincerely wiſh they were reſtored to their proper Places in the Adminiſtration; which, however, cannot be accompliſhed, until ſecret Influence is totally removed; an Happineſs that is not only moſt ardently looked for, but hoped to be not far diſtant.

On Thurſday the 4th Inſtant, was tried at Guildhall, before Lord Mansfield, an Action upon a Policy of Inſurance, againſt an Underwriter on Goods ſhipped in a general Ship at Montſerrat, for London; when, it appearing that the Ship was not Sea-worthy to undertake the Voyage, the Cauſe was determined in Favour of the Inſurer. By this Determination it appears, that when a Ship is inſufficient to proceed upon the inſured Voyage, all Policies of Inſurance (whether on the Ship or Goods) are diſcharged; and that Shippers of Goods muſt reſort to the Owners of Ships for a Satisfaction for the Injury they ſuſtain by Loſſes occaſioned from the Inſufficiency of Ships.

When Mr. Williams entered Guildhall, on Wedneſday, he had a Roll of Paper under his Arm, and being aſked what it contained, he informed the Enquirer it was one of his Sureties, and immediately produced a Print of Mr. Wilkes, with the Cap of Liberty by his Side.

It is now hoped, that Vigour and Unanimity will once more reſume their Seats in our Councils.

July 16. Yeſterday, and not before, Lord John Cavendiſh, George Onſlow, and Thomas Townſhend, Eſqrs. kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed Commiſſioners of the Treaſury.

Yeſterday Lord Villiers kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed Vice-Chamberlain of the Houſhold.

The following Reſignations have been made, and Alterations taken Place, ſince our laſt.

On Sunday the Duke of Marlborough reſigned the Office of Privy Seal; Earl Powis that of Treaſurer; and Lord Charles Spencer that of Comptroller of the King's Houſhold.

Yeſterday there was a Council at St. James's, when the Duke of Newcaſtle was ſworn in Lord Privy Seal, in the Room of the Duke of Marlborough; and took his Place, and received the Seal accordingly.

Yeſterday his Majeſty was pleaſed to create the Right Hon. Sir Charles Pratt, Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas, a Peer of Great-Britain, by the Title of Baron Camden, of Chiſlehurſt in Kent.

We are informed, a Scheme is on Foot for each of the North-American Colonies to furniſh their own armed Ships in the Nature of Guard-de-coſtas; as is intended to be done by the Province of New-England, and for which they will be allowed an adequate Sum; his Majeſty's Ships of War are to be recalled, in order to leſſen this Expence of Government.

The Freemen of the Town of Newport, at a Meeting held on the third Inſtant, UNANIMOUSLY VOTED, That the following Inſtructions ſhould be given to the Gentlemen who repreſent them in the General Aſſembly, viz.

To the Deputies of the Town of Newport.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Confidence we have in your Integrity and Ability, hath induced us repeatedly to make Choice of you to repreſent us in the General Aſſembly; and it is with Pleaſure we reflect, that your Conduct hath juſtly merited our Approbation.

The Truſt repoſed in you, at all Times requires your Attention to the public Intereſt: But at this critical Conjuncture, when the Liberties of his Majeſty's Subjects in America are in the greateſt Danger of being ſubverted, the utmoſt Wiſdom, and the moſt unſhaken Fortitude, are neceſſary, to extricate us from our perplexed and embarraſſed Situation.

With Hearts filled with Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty, and inviolably attached to Great-Britain, the Inhabitants of this Colony chearfully complied with every Requiſition made by the Crown during the late long and bloody War; and exerted themſelves in it with a Spirit far exceeding their Ability. They were happy in receiving the Approbation of his Majeſty and the Parliament; and with great Reaſon flattered themſelves, that the ſame Favours and Indulgence, which had been always ſhewn them by their Mother Country, would have been continued to them: That their ruined Commerce would revive: That, being freed from the heavy Expences of the War, they ſhould find Means in Time to diſcharge the enormous Debt accumulated by it: And that, together with the Bleſſings of Peace, they ſhould enjoy inviolate the ineſtimable Liberties and Privileges which they received from their Anceſtors, and wiſhed to tranſmit to their lateſt Poſterity.

Inſtead of theſe parental Favours, by ſome of the late Acts of the Britiſh Parliament, the Channels of our Commerce are obſtructed,—our Property ſubjected to the arbitrary Deciſions of the Courts of Admiralty,—and an internal Tax levied upon us without our Conſent.

Trials by Juries, and the being Taxed by none but their own Repreſentatives, are the inherent Rights of the Inhabitants of this Colony: They have been confirmed by a ROYAL CHARTER: They were never conteſted, but have always been recognized by the KING and PARLIAMENT of Great-Britain.

Who then can ſee thoſe glorious Bulwarks of Liberty, TRIALS BY JURIES, AND THE RIGHTS OF TAXATION, ſhocked to their Foundations, and not feel for his Country? Who is there that can feel, and ſuppreſs his Concern?

The Inhabitants of the other Colonies, affected with their preſent Diſtreſſes, and animated with the noble Spirit of Liberty, have propoſed a Meeting of Commiſſioners from all the Colonies, to be held at New-York, to conſult upon, and join in ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be thought neceſſary for the Removal of theſe Grievances.

Inſpired with the ſame Sentiments, we expect that you will give your utmoſt Attention to thoſe important Objects, the Courts of Admiralty, and the Act for Levying Stamp Duties: That while you expreſs the greateſt Affection and Loyalty to our Sovereign, and all proper Regard to that auguſt Aſſembly, the Britiſh Parliament, you aſſert our Rights with a becoming Firmneſs.

That you will uſe your utmoſt Endeavours, that the General Aſſembly of this Colony appoint Commiſſioners, to meet thoſe who are or ſhall be appointed by the other Colonies, upon this moſt intereſting Occaſion; and, in general, to join and co-operate with them in every reaſonable and probable Meaſure for the Preſervation of our Liberties.

It is for LIBERTY!——That LIBERTY, for which our Fathers bled!——That LIBERTY, which is dearer to a generous Mind than Life itſelf, that we now contend!——The Cauſe is vaſt and important; and if the Efforts of his Majeſty's loyal Subjects in North-America be but equal to it's Importance, we have the higheſt Reaſon to think, that, notwithſtanding the Diſregard ſhewn to the ſeparate Remonſtrances of the Colonies, their united Endeavours will be crowned with Succeſs.

BOSTON,

We hear from [illegible], that laſt Week a Number of Men were inliſted there, at Eight Dollars Bounty; they are ſaid to be intended for an Independent Company, but what Service they are to be employed in is only as yet conjectured; however, the People at that Place, to the Number of upwards of 300, were ſo diſſatisfied, that they waited upon the inliſting Officer in a Body, to enquire the Reaſon of this Proceeding; but not receiving a ſatisfactory Anſwer, they peremptorily informed him, that not one Perſon who was ſo inliſted ſhould be carried out of the Place.

The Public have been greatly alarmed the Week paſt, with Rumours that Caſtle William was to be turned into a Stamp-Office, that new Works for Defence were adding to that Fortreſs, and that ſeveral Guarda Coſtas, not Spaniſh, but Engliſh, were arrived, for the Protection and Defence of Stamp Papers and Stampmen.—As alſo the Independent Companies were to be raiſed, and one Col. Saltonſtal, and Mr. Miller, a regular Officer, were commiſſioned to raiſe the Men about the Country, the Preference to be given to Foreigners, and Monies had been drawn from the Province Treaſury towards the Expence.—As to the firſt of theſe Reports, the Governor's Speech to the Council will explain it; but as to the latter, we are ſtill in the Dark,—ſome ſay it is really a Fact, and that a ——adviſed to it, in order to prevent Lord Colville and General Gage being wrote to for Troops; but we cannot credit a Report of this Nature, which muſt ſo greatly affect the Concerned: Neither can we think but that the Charge of raiſing theſe Men, if true, muſt be at a private Expence, as no Proviſion of this Sort has been made by the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and we muſt not conclude any other Branch or Branches of the Legiſlature would take upon themſelves to do it, eſpecially at a Time when all the American Provinces are loudly complaining of the Hardſhip of a Parliament in which they are not actually repreſented. It would certainly tend to quiet the Minds of the good People of this Town and Province, to be informed by Authority, that theſe Reports are without any Foundation.

LEBANON (in Connecticut) Aug. 27.

Yeſterday was held in this Town a ſpecial Court, for the Trial of a certain Criminal, late A---t for this Colony: He made his Appearance at the Bar of ſaid Court, in the Perſon of his VIRTUAL Repreſentative, and was denied none of the Juſt RIGHTS of Engliſhmen, being allowed the Sacred Privileges of a Trial by his Peers, &c. After a full Hearing, he was ſentenced to be taken from the Tribunal of Juſtice, placed in a Cart, with a Halter about his Neck, carried in Proceſſion thro' the Streets of the Town, to expoſe him to juſt Ignominy and Contempt, and then to be drawn to the Place of Execution, and hanged by the Neck till dead, and afterwards to be committed to the Flames, that, if poſſible, he might be purified by Fire; which Sentence was immediately executed amidſt a vaſt Concourſe of Spectators, exulting in the Proſpect of LIBERTY. On the right Hand of the Priſoner ſtood the grand Seducer of Mankind, offering him a Purſe, and hiſſing this Propoſal, Accept this Office, and Enſlave your Country, and 400l. per Annum, ſhall be your Reward. His injured Country, repreſented by a Lady dreſſed in Sable, with Chains rattling at her Feet, was placed on the other Side, thus pleading with her baſe, unnatural Child:—My Son! remember that I have treated you with the utmoſt Tenderneſs, and beſtowed on you my higheſt Honours, pity your Country, and put not on me theſe Chains. To which her ungrateful, degenerate Son, replied, in a Label proceeding from his Mouth, Periſh my Country, ſo that I get that Reward: Upon the Utterance of which, ſuch indignant Wrath ſwelled the Boſom of this venerable Matron, that her Power of Speech failed; yet the Sentiments of her Heart appeared glowing in Capital Characters upon her Breaſt, in the following Words:

——Heaven cruſh theſe Vipers,
Who, ſingled out by a Community,
To guard her Rights ſhall, for a graſp of Ore,
Or Paltry Office, ſell them to the Foe.

Which awful, prophetic and parental Curſe, preſently took Place; for, as ſoon as this Repreſentative was exhibited ſufficiently to excite a mere Abhorrence and Deteſtation of his Crimes, being protected by a ſtrong Guard, from the Rage of the Populace, during the whole Proceſſion; and, after hanging 'til he was dead, was cut down, and delivered into the Power of his falſe Friend and Seducer, who according to his uſual Practice changed from a Tempter to a Tormentor; plunged his Priſoner headlong in a huge Pyramid of Fire, mighty Paws barring faſt the Gates of this ſuitable Habitation: Mean while the Heavens reſounding with Acclamations and loud Huzzas: Nor did a weeping Eye or relenting Heart hinder or allay any Demonſtration of Joy, which an ardent Love of LIBERTY could inſpire in the Breaſts of her moſt virtuous Sons.

ANNAPOLIS, September 26.

Monday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, when the Hon^ble the Lower Houſe unanimouſly made Choice of Robert Lloyd, Eſq; a Member for Queen Anne's County, to be their Speaker, of which Election his Excellency the Governor gave his Approbation, and opened the Seſſion with the following SPEECH:

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly,

HAVING Reaſon to think, it would be very agreeable to you, to be convened, as ſoon as the unlucky Cauſe, which made me decline meeting you laſt Spring, was removed, I have called you together, before the Day, to which the Aſſembly ſtood prorogued, hoping, that my doing ſo, will convince you of my Deſire to gratify you, and afford you an Opportunity, of promoting the true Intereſt of your Country.

You will, I preſume, Gentlemen, during this Seſſion, not only, have the Paper Money that hath been paid into the Loan Office, burnt agreeable to the Act, and the Books Ballanced, but alſo, by paying off the Public Debt, bring into Circulation, at this Time when the Want of it is much felt, the Specie that is at preſent lock'd up in that Office, and ſuch Money, as having been remitted to England, by Virtue of ſeveral Acts of Aſſembly, ſtill remains there unappropriated.

I have not, for my Part, any Thing, Gentlemen, at this Time, to aſk of you, and it would be unneceſſary for me, to recommend to you, the Making ſuch new Laws, as your own Experience, teaches you, the Province is in Want of, I ſhall, therefore only ſay, that I moſt ſincerely wiſh, all your Deliberations, may tend to advance the Public Good, and that altho', you compoſe Two Houſes, yet, ſince your Intereſt is the ſame, you may proceed, with the greateſt Harmony, and, as is your Duty, be unanimous in your Endeavours, to promote the Welfare of your Country, which I alſo conſider as my own.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the Upper Houſe of ASSEMBLY.

Your Excellency's convening the General Aſſembly of the Province at this Juncture, hath, we are perſuaded, given the People great Satisfaction, and is an Inſtance of your Excellency's affectionate Regard, for thoſe over whom you happily preſide.

Senſible how much it is at preſent wanted in the Province, we hope ſome Method will, during the Courſe of the Seſſion, be fallen upon to bring into Circulation the Money your Excellency mentions: And we beg Leave to aſſure you, that we ſhall, on our Part, endeavour to cultivate the beſt Underſtanding with the Gentlemen who compoſe the other Houſe, and flatter Ourſelves, that as we are equally intereſted in the Welfare of our Country, there will be no other Contention between Us, than who ſhall endeavour moſt to promote it.

B. TASKER, Preſident.

I imagine he has got a forged Paſs, as he has been concerned with ſome white People of the ſame Stamp. He had on a white Jean or Fuſtian Coat, rather too long for him, a Cloth Coat, the Colour unknown, a Tartin Veſt and Breeches, Check'd Linen long Breeches, white Shirts, Shoes, Silver Buckles, a deep crown'd Carolina Felt Hat, with a narrow Brim, a Tail Wig, and white Yarn Stockings. A LARGE and compleat ASSORTMENT of European and Eaſt-India GOODS, for Wheat, Tobacco, or Money.

(6*) JAMES McLACHLAN.

[illegible] that laſt Week a Number of Men were inliſted there, at Eight Dollars Bounty; they are ſaid to be intended for an Independent Company, but what Service they are to be employed in is only as yet conjectured; however, the People at that Place, to the Number of upwards of 300, were ſo diſſatisfied, that they waited upon the inliſting Officer in a Body, to enquire the Reaſon of this Proceeding; but not receiving a ſatisfactory Anſwer, they peremptorily informed him, that not one Perſon who was ſo inliſted ſhould be carried out of the Place.

The Public have been greatly alarmed the Week paſt, with Rumours that Caſtle William was to be turned into a Stamp-Office, that new Works for Defence were adding to that Fortreſs, and that ſeveral Guarda Coſtas, not Spaniſh, but Engliſh, were arrived, for the Protection and Defence of Stamp Papers and Stampmen.—As alſo the Independent Companies were to be raiſed, and one Col. Saltonſtal, and Mr. Miller, a regular Officer, were commiſſioned to raiſe the Men about the Country, the Preference to be given to Foreigners, and Monies had been drawn from the Province Treaſury towards the Expence.—As to the firſt of theſe Reports, the Governor's Speech to the Council will explain it; but as to the latter, we are ſtill in the Dark,—ſome ſay it is really a Fact, and that a ——adviſed to it, in order to prevent Lord Colville and General Gage being wrote to for Troops; but we cannot credit a Report of this Nature, which muſt ſo greatly affect the Concerned: Neither can we think but that the Charge of raiſing theſe Men, if true, muſt be at a private Expence, as no Proviſion of this Sort has been made by the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and we muſt not conclude any other Branch or Branches of the Legiſlature would take upon themſelves to do it, eſpecially at a Time when all the American Provinces are loudly complaining of the Hardſhip of a Parliament in which they are not actually repreſented. It would certainly tend to quiet the Minds of the good People of this Town and Province, to be informed by Authority, that theſe Reports are without any Foundation.

LEBANON (in Connecticut) Aug. 27.

Yeſterday was held in this Town a ſpecial Court, for the Trial of a certain Criminal, late A---t for this Colony: He made his Appearance at the Bar of ſaid Court, in the Perſon of his VIRTUAL Repreſentative, and was denied none of the Juſt RIGHTS of Engliſhmen, being allowed the Sacred Privileges of a Trial by his Peers, &c. After a full Hearing, he was ſentenced to be taken from the Tribunal of Juſtice, placed in a Cart, with a Halter about his Neck, carried in Proceſſion thro' the Streets of the Town, to expoſe him to juſt Ignominy and Contempt, and then to be drawn to the Place of Execution, and hanged by the Neck till dead; and afterwards to be committed to the Flames, that, if poſſible, he might be purified by Fire; which Sentence was immediately executed amidſt a vaſt Concourſe of Spectators, exulting in the Proſpect of LIBERTY. On the right Hand of the Priſoner ſtood the grand Seducer of Mankind, offering him a Purſe, and hiſſing this Propoſal, Accept this Office, and Enſlave your Country, and 400l. per Annum, ſhall be your Reward. His injured Country, repreſented by a Lady dreſſed in Sable, with Chains rattling at her Feet, was placed on the other Side, thus pleading with her baſe, unnatural Child:—My Son! remember that I have treated you with the utmoſt Tenderneſs, and beſtowed on you my higheſt Honours, pity your Country, and put not on me thoſe Chains. To which her ungrateful, degenerate Son, replied, in a Label proceeding from his Mouth, Periſh my Country, ſo that I get that Reward: Upon the Utterance of which, ſuch indignant Wrath ſwelled the Boſom of this venerable Matron, that her Power of Speech failed; yet the Sentiments of her Heart appeared glowing in Capital Characters upon her Breaſt, in the following Words:

——Heaven cruſh thoſe Vipers,
Who, ſingled out by a Community,
To guard her Rights ſhall, for a graſp of Ore,
Or Paltry Office, ſell them to the Foe.

Which awful, prophetic and parental Curſe, preſently took Place; for, as ſoon as this Repreſentative was exhibited ſufficiently to excite a mere Abhorrence and Deteſtation of his Crimes, being protected by a ſtrong Guard, from the Rage of the Populace, during the whole Proceſſion; and, after hanging 'til he was dead, was cut down, and delivered into the Power of his falſe Friend and Seducer, who according to his uſual Practice changed from a Tempter to a Tormentor; plunged his Priſoner headlong in a huge Pyramid of Fire, [illegible] mighty Paws barring faſt the Gates of this ſuitable Habitation: Mean while the Heavens reſounding with Acclamations and loud Huzzas: Nor did a weeping Eye or relenting Heart hinder or allay any Demonſtration of Joy, which an ardent Love of LIBERTY could inſpire in the Breaſts of her moſt virtuous Sons.

ANNAPOLIS, September 26.

Monday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, when the Hon^ble^ the Lower Houſe unanimouſly made Choice of Robert Lloyd, Eſq; a Member for Queen Anne's County, to be their Speaker, of which Election his Excellency the Governor gave his Approbation, and opened the Seſſion with the following SPEECH:

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly,

HAVING Reaſon to think, it would be very agreeable to you, to be convened, as ſoon as the unlucky Cauſe, which made me decline meeting you laſt Spring, was removed, I have called you together, before the Day, to which the Aſſembly ſtood prorogued, hoping, that my doing ſo, will convince you of my Deſire to gratify you, and afford you an Opportunity, of promoting the true Intereſt of your Country.

You will, I preſume, Gentlemen, during this Seſſion, not only, have the Paper Money that hath been paid into the Loan Office, burnt agreeable to the Act, and the Books Ballanced, but alſo, by paying off the Public Debt, bring into Circulation, at this Time when the Want of it is much felt, the Specie that is at preſent lock'd up in that Office, and ſuch Money, as having been remitted to England, by Virtue of ſeveral Acts of Aſſembly, ſtill remains there unappropriated.

I have not, for my Part, any Thing, Gentlemen, at this Time, to aſk of you, and it would be unneceſſary for me, to recommend to you, the Making ſuch new Laws, as your own Experience, teaches you, the Province is in Want of, I ſhall, therefore only ſay, that I moſt ſincerely wiſh, all your Deliberations, may tend to advance the Public Good, and that altho', you compoſe Two Houſes, yet, ſince your Intereſt is the ſame, you may proceed, with the greateſt Harmony, and, as is your Duty, be unanimous in your Endeavours, to promote the Welfare of your Country, which I alſo conſider as my own.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the Upper Houſe of ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

TO accept the thankful Acknowledgments of his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly, for your very kind Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

Your Excellency's convening the General Aſſembly of the Province at this Juncture, hath, we are perſuaded, given the People great Satiſfaction, and is an Inſtance of your Excellency's affectionate Regard, for thoſe over whom you happily preſide.

Senſible how much it is at preſent wanted in the Province, we hope ſome Method will, during the Courſe of the Seſſion, be fallen upon to bring into Circulation the Money your Excellency mentions: And we beg Leave to aſſure you, that we ſhall, on our Part, endeavour to cultivate the beſt Underſtanding with the Gentlemen who compoſe the other Houſe, and flatter Ourſelves, that as we are equally intereſted in the Welfare of our Country, there will be no other Contention between Us, than who ſhall endeavour moſt to promote it.

B. TASKER, Preſident.

September 25, 1765.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Upper Houſe,

I RETURN you Thanks for your obliging Addreſs, which ſhews how much you have the Welfare and Happineſs of your Country at Heart, and leaves no Room to doubt, but every Thing will be done on your Part to promote it.

HOR°. SHARPE.

The Hon^ble^ Henry Hooper, Eſq; late Speaker of the Lower Houſe, was ſworn in One of his Lordſhip's Hon^ble^ Council of State on Monday laſt.

WHEREAS it hath been Reported, That the Subſcriber is in Partnerſhip with Mr. Zachariah Hood, and that my Son was ſent for from Philadelphia to keep his Store, and aſſiſt him in his Office: This is to inform the Public, That this Report is without Foundation, and that I never had any ſuch Thought, nor have I any Connexion in Buſineſs with Mr. Hood of any Kind, and that the whole Reaſon of my Son's coming to Maryland was to ſee me, there being a Vacation in the College, where he lives, to give the Youth an Opportunity to viſit their Friends.

I imagine he has got a forged Paſs, as he has been concerned with ſome white People of the ſame Stamp. He had on a white Jean or Fuſtian Coat, rather too long for him, a Cloth Coat, the Colour unknown, a Tartin Veſt and Breeches, Check'd Linen long Breeches, white Shirts, Shoes, Silver Buckles, a deep crown'd Carolina Felt Hat, with a narrow Brim, a Tail Wig, and white Yarn Stockings.
